

Safety Doc Box - Construction Site Document Storage

Product Images

Short Description

Highly visible Safety Doc Box, 1000mm high at the front, 1200mm high at the rear. 700mm wide and 600mm deep. Featuring a ballast at the base which can hold over 45kgs of water, making the safety doc box extremely sturdy in all weather and site conditions.

Description

The Australian designed Safety Doc Box is a smarter way to manage essential documents on site, enabling you to easily and safely store permits, drawings JHEA/JHAS, MSDSs and more in a sturdy waterproof unit.

Easy to assemble in around 60 seconds, this highly visible bright yellow unit makes an ideal muster point. It features a storage area storing safety and site consumables and other essentials like first aid kits and fire extinguishers.

The Safety Doc Box is changing the way your documentation is managed, stored and utilised on site will increase productivity by reducing the number of hours lost to administrative inefficiency.

Currently in use across Australia on a range of projects, it is a simple and effective unit to streamline operations on the job site.

Features:

- Waterproof document housing unit
- Store JHEA/JHA's, Take 5's, Engineering drawings, Danger Tags, Hot Works Permits etc.
- Can be used as a WASP (Work Area Sign In Point)
- Dimensions: 1000mm high at front, 1200mm high at rear, 700mm wide, 600mm deep
- First aid kits and other safety consumables can be stored and monitored on the shelf
- Highly visible on site and can be used as a muster point
- Space available to accommodate company logos and first aid stickers
- Australian Designed and Patented
- Manufactured using injection and blow moulded materials
- UV Resistant for up to 25 years

VIDEOS

Take a look at how easy it is to put the safety doc box together and add your first aid kits, SWMS, SDS information, fire extinguishers, permits and JHEAs etc.

Additional Information

CODE	64-SDBOX
U.O.M	Each
Weight	75
Colour	Yellow
Finish	Waterproof, UV Resistant
Height	1000mm high at the front, 1200mm high at the rear
Width	700 mm

